TARIFF DEBATE WEDNESDAY

McCumber Fires First Republican Gun
Today With Underwood-Simmons Bill as Target.

Washington, July 13.—Martin M. Mulhall, confessed lobbyist of the National Association of Manufacturers, after dodging subpoena service of the house of representatives since Saturday afternoon, will be before the senate lobby investigating committee again tomorrow and resume his revelations of alleged dealings and double dealings with men of affairs in and out of congress.

Though legislative affairs, chiefly tariff revision and currency reform, are progressive and destined to take on new vigor this week, interest in them is overshadowed by the Mulhall charges, hitting at public men right and left, as the overman committee digs deeper into the huge pile of correspondence carried on between Mulhall, officials of the National Association of Manufacturers, labor leaders, congressmen and others.

Believing the interest in the lobby hunt is the game of hide and seek attended by members of the senate committee in the role of hiders and members of the house investigating committee acting as seekers after the arch witness, Mulhall, and his ten-year pile of correspondence.

House Members Aroused.
Chairman Garrett and his colleagues, depicted by the house to inquire into the Mulhall charges, were considerably aroused yesterday over the trick played by the senate committee which let Mulhall leave town for over Sunday before subpoena service could reach up to the witness for a Saturday afternoon session with the house committee.

As matters stand now in the contest between the house and senate for jurisdiction over the personal acts of Mulhall, the senate claims nine points of the law, being possession of both witness and documents and will continue to hold them until all the papers in the case have been read into the record and interpreted by Mulhall and until they are through with the witness.

It is not the intention of the senate committee to release Mulhall from the subpoena which antedates that issued by the house committee. Members of the committee declared today that they could not finish with Mulhall in less than a week and that they might require his presence longer on direct examination. In order to avert any possibility of the witness getting away from the senate side the committee contemplates holding day and night sessions.

Will Investigate Mulhall.
The house investigators will continue to watch for an opportunity to catch Mulhall when he is not engaged before the overman committee and in the meantime they are planning to examine acquaintances and relatives of the Mulhall lobbyist to get all possible information about the man and his operations from outside sources.

President Wilson will return to Washington tomorrow from his vacation and he will be gratified to find the senate ready to begin debate of the long considered tariff bill. He also will find that the bill has been made a party measure, as he desired, and that when it becomes a law it will have been placed on the statute books of the Democratic party and not as the result of a particular effort by an individual congressman or senator or clique of individuals.

Tariff Fight Begins Today.

The tariff debate really will begin in the senate Wednesday although the first Republican gun will be fired at the measure tomorrow when Senator McCumber of North Dakota attacks the agricultural schedule. He will speak by unanimous consent because he is obliged to leave Washington for some time.

Senator McCumber will return in time to vote against the bill. Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee, will submit the majority report on the bill in a day or two and he will make the opening statement for the administration Wednesday.

Republican leaders intend to fight

Negroes Guard Husband and Ravish His Wife

Houston, Tex., July 13.—Threatened with death if he uttered a sound, W. J. Engel was held in a corner of his bedroom at 3:30 o'clock this morning by a negro while three other negroes ravished Mrs. Engel, aged 25, his wife. A long bladed knife was held at Engel's throat. The negroes took turn about guarding Engel. Two little children, aged 3 and 4, witnessed the daring assault on their mother. This story was told by the Engels

Miss Jessie Wilson, Daughter of President, and Her Fiance, Leaving Church at Cornish, N. H.

Neither Miss Jessie Wilson, daughter of the president, nor Francis Pickens, the young man to whom she is engaged, flinched when the photographers leveled their cameras at them Sunday, July 6, at Cornish, N. H. Young Mr. Pickens, who is employed in the office of the district attorney of New York county, took a trip to the summer White House to see Miss Wilson and the family. It was the first time he had seen her since the announcement in Washington the other day of the impending wedding. Of course, they went to church and the camera men waited them outside. The young woman, who is not afraid to be the Thirteenth White House bride, and is to become such in the fall, and Mr. Pickens are seen just after they left the church.

BUSY WEEK IS IN PROSPECT

First Thing on Tap for Today is the Conference With Men Threatening Railroad Strike.

New Haven, Conn., July 13.—After a ten days' absence from the national capital, the first of any length since he was inaugurated, President Wilson was en route tonight from his summer home at Cornish, N. H., to Washington, where he will arrive early tomorrow.

The president's attention immediately after arrival at the White House will be directed to the conference scheduled for tomorrow with the representatives of the railroads and the trainmen and conductors of the threatened strike on eastern lines.

Read Papers Closely.
During his vacation Mr. Wilson has followed the newspapers closely and has been kept advised of Washington affairs in daily telegrams from Secretary Tumulty. The president goes back to his work physically strengthened by his trip.

Cheerfully noting that it was the thirteenth day of the month and remarking that the number 13 had to him always been an omen of good luck, the president said goodbye to his family at Harborside House, about 2 o'clock this afternoon, motoring three miles to Windsor, Vt., where his private car had been sidetracked. Earlier in the day the president and his family attended services at a church in Cornish.

The president enjoyed the train ride, sitting most of the time on the observation platform. He shook hands with many persons at the various New England stations. He passed through New Haven at 9 o'clock, his car being attached here to the "Federal Express."

to local police officers at an early hour this morning. The police officials, however, are skeptical of the story related.

While searching the neighborhood for suspects thirty minutes after the crime, Darius Tunson, a negro, who attempted to kill Mounted Officer Henry Woods while endeavoring to evade arrest, was himself killed.

Two negroes and two negroesses are now in jail, held as suspects.

ATLANT AWOMAN SURRENDERS

Heirs at Law, Dissatisfied With Sum
Out Warrant.

Atlanta, Ga., July 13.—Four years after the alleged crime was committed, Mrs. Mary Belle Crawford, 50 years of age, was arrested here early today on the charge of having murdered her wealthy husband, Joshua B. Crawford, by giving him morphine and opium. She is held a prisoner without bail in the county jail.

The accused woman returned to Atlanta from Tucker, Ga., where she had gone on business, at 2 o'clock this morning after she learned that Charles Z. Crawford, one of the heirs at law of the dead capitalist, had sworn out a warrant charging her with murder. She went immediately to the county jail and surrendered. Her preliminary hearing will be held Wednesday.

Heirs at law of the dead man, who instituted a civil suit in an effort to have his will set aside, recently had the body exhumed and an examination made by Dr. H. E. Harris, secretary of the state board of health.

Dr. Harris testified last week in the civil suit that he found traces of morphine and muonic acid, an element of opium, in the stomach of Crawford. He asserted that he did not believe death resulted from pneumonia, as was given out at the time of the demise.

"Of course, I deny the whole charge," said Mrs. Crawford tonight. "It is just one thing piled on another to make me spend my money in lawyers' fees and to humiliate and wound me because heirs at law of my husband want more than their share of the estate and hate me."

The estate of the dead man is valued at $250,000. His widow, under the terms of his will, is chief beneficiary. Mrs. Crawford was married to the dead capitalist after a brief courtship in February, 1909, and one month after Crawford died. He was 75 years old at the time, more than twenty-five years older than his wife.

Dr. J. W. Hurt of this city, who attended Crawford during his last illness, today issued a statement, in which he said that he had given Crawford medicine containing morphine and muonic acid.

To Revive Sardinia Industry.
Washington, July 13.—Rehabilitation of the American sardinia industry, admitted by the canners to be in a deplorable condition, has been undertaken by the department of agriculture. Secretary Houston announced today that as a first step in this direction the department has established a special sardine laboratory at Eastport, Maine, with Dr. F. C. Weber of the bureau of chemistry in charge.

London, July 13.—The Balkan states appear to be again in the melting pot. There is no sign of peace at present. Greece and Serbia have declined to agree to an armistice. The Turkish army is advancing by forced marches from Thessalonica and Bulair, apparently with the consent of Greece and Serbia, to attempt the recapture of Adrianople and Thrace.

Roumania is said to be proceeding to occupy a much larger extent of Bulgarian territory than she previously claimed and Greece is burning to avenge the Bulgarian massacres concerning which horrifying details continue to appear in official reports issued from Athens and Saloniki. According to these reports ears and fingers of Greek women still bearing earrings and rings, were found in the pockets of Bulgarian prisoners.

There still is talk of Russia interfering, and it is reported from St. Petersburg that the powers in concert have notified the sublime Porte they will not permit military operations beyond the Enos-Midia line, fixed by the London conference.

No fresh fighting is reported and rumors circulated in Sofia are without foundation.

Bulgars Evacuate Rodosto.
Constantinople, July 13.—The Thessalonica and Bulair armies are advancing by forced marches and have already occupied Thessalonica without opposition. The Bulgarians have evacuated Rodosto.

The greatest activity prevails here and troops, artillery and provision convoys are being brought across the Bosphorus from Asia Minor. Destruction of villages by retreating Bulgarians has aroused bitter feeling here. The route is in communication with Belgrade, Athens and Bucharest and is said to have received assurances that neither Greece, Serbia nor Roumania will conclude an armistice without consulting Turkey.

Police Burn City.

Saloniki, July 13.—Refugees from Seres report that the Bulgarian police set fire to the town in several places Thursday. While the fire was raging throughout the city Bulgarian guns mounted on adjacent heights bombarded houses flying foreign flags, notably the consulates, which were filled with fugitives, and poured shrapnel into the crowds fleeing from the city.

STRIKE DEPENDS ON CONFERENCE

ROADS WILL RECEDE?

CONDUCTORS AND TRAINMEN

WOULD INCREASE ARBITRATORS

Both Men and Roads Willing to Change Erdman Law So as to Add
New Members to the Board.

New York, July 13.—Whether a strike of upwards of 80,000 conductors and trainmen on forty-five eastern railroads will be declared within the next few days depends upon whether the railroads recede from their present position and withdraw their refusal to arbitrate the wage and other difficulties between the companies and the men.

This declaration was made tonight in statements by the trainmen's representatives after the grievance committee of employees from the various roads, in conference here, had ratified the strike vote recently taken and had authorized A. E. Garretson, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors, and W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, to issue the formal strike order to their respective organizations.

Police prospects centered upon the attitude of the roads, the men declared, with the possibility that a week of the deadlock would be supplied by tomorrow's conference in Washington, where amendments to the Erdman law, under which dispute between the roads and their employees is arbitrated, will be considered with a view of pressing their speedy passage in congress.

To Delay Strike Order.
The general committee of the two organizations authorized Garretson and Lee to delay the strike order long enough to permit them to attend the Washington conference between the representatives of the railroads and their employees and prominent public men. The men's representatives will take part in the conference in the hope that it will result in the passage of the Erdman amendment increasing from three to six or more the number of arbitrators to act in disputes between railroads and their employees. It has been plain that the railroads' objection to the Erdman law arbitration that too much responsibility rests upon a single man—the third or neutral arbitrator.

Presidents Garretson and Lee left tonight for Washington. They issued a signed statement explaining the action of the committee today and their attitude with regard to the Washington conference.

Strike Vote Ratified.
The committee of the various roads acting independently of each other, says the statement, "unanimously ratified the strike vote of the membership on their respective lines and empowered the executive officers of the organizations to fix the date for their retirement from the service should the attitude of the managers' committee remain unchanged. In order that no reasonable means for effecting a friendly settlement should be neglected by us, they authorized sufficient delay in making the strike effective to permit the undersigned to attend the conference arranged for tomorrow in Washington with President Wilson, called for the consideration of the amendments to the Erdman act as embodied in the Newlands bill. In the hope that if such amendments were made immediately effective, it might induce the companies to abandon the position heretofore maintained by the conference committee of managers and lead to a withdrawal of their former withdrawal from the proposition to arbitrate under the provisions of the federal law."

Mr. Lee announced that the railroads formally would be notified of the committee's decision in ratifying the strike order. The leaders declared no further overtures will be made to the roads.

Offer Was Rejected.
"We offered arbitration weeks ago," said President Garretson, "but our offer was rejected."

The formal report of the vote of the men on each railroad set forth that the conference committee, authorized to act for such road, "declined to make any concession or grant any portion of the increase in wages asked for, or changed working conditions requested and in addition, have refused to submit the matter to arbitration."

In Electric Wreck

Los Angeles, Cal., July 13.—Twelve persons were killed and about fifty others were injured tonight when a Pacific electric interurban train ran into another electric train at Vineyard station, a junction on the outskirts of Los Angeles.

First reports from the wreck were conflicting. As nearly as could be learned, both trains were inbound from Los Angeles. They were crowded with passengers, and it is reported that many of the injured were severely hurt.

A relief train has gone to Vineyard station.

Every Boat From Mexican Ports Carries
Refugees Who Have Lost
All in Southern Republic.

Enrique Pass, Tex., July 13.—Refugees arriving in Pedras Negras during last night brought news of the capture of Monclova, a constitutionalist stronghold, last Thursday by federalists under General Maas.

Constitutionalists are now massing at several different points preparatory to a desperate attempt to retake the city, probably some time this week. The capture of Monclova was a brilliant coup by General Maas, who waited until Governor Carranza left to attack General Navarrete and then found little difficulty in occupying the city which had been left with only 300 men as guard.

Governor Carranza is reported to have abandoned Candela in an effort to prevent the capture of Monclova, but in spite of forced marches arrived too late.

Seize All Rolling Stock.
His advance guard was obliged to fight a way through old Monclova to Monclova Estacion, where they seized all the rolling stock of the railroad and proceeded north to Hermanas, destroying the track as they went. Heavy loss of life is reported on both sides.

Governor Carranza went west to Naderos. When reinforcements arrive from Cuatrecasas under Colonels Cos and Gutierrez, and from Matamoros, under General Lucio Blanco, the attack will be made on Monclova. General Maas has 1,000 men.

Several hundred refugees have reached Enrique Pass and Salinas is crowded. One military train also reached Pedras Negras safely.

The movements of General Navarrete since his battle with Carranza last week are unknown.

Federals Capture Monclova.

Laredo, Tex., July 13.—General Joaquin Tellez, commander of border forces in the vicinity of Nuevo Laredo, today was advised from Tampico that Monclova, a Carranza stronghold, has been occupied by federalists under General Maas. The dispatch says the capture was effected Saturday afternoon.

Destitute Americans Flee.
Washington, July 13.—Destitute Americans are arriving in the United States on every boat from Mexican ports. Many of them face financial ruin in consequence of the series of revolutions which has paralyzed commercial and industrial enterprises in Mexico and they are leaving the southern republic with reluctance.

American consuls are empowered to draw upon the state department for funds to bring Americans out of the various danger zones and in some instances, notably at Torreón, Ambassador Henry Lamar Wilson has sent money to be expended by consuls and consular agents to relieve actual hunger.

Before Mexico passed through the travail which commenced with the Madero revolution against the Diaz regime, most of the now indigent Americans were engaged in prosperous ranching and mining enterprise or other commercial pursuits.

While the United States government has repeatedly warned them to flee and depend upon the government of the United States to secure a settlement of their claims against Mexico, fear of delay in adjustment of claims and loss of their property has made hundreds risk remaining in the revolution torn country. Within the last month between four and five hundred have been brought to the United States at government expense.

Howling Mob Parades Mexico City's

Mexico City, July 13.—A plot to assassinate President Huerta, General Felix Diaz and General Blanquet, the war minister, has been frustrated by the arrest of one deputy and ten other men of prominence. It is said the intention was to use bombs at some opportune moment when these officials were diving through the streets.

Documents were found on the prisoners identifying them as supporters of Zapata and setting forth an outline of the plot. Several of the prisoners have confessed.

In a building somewhat remotely located they had practiced the throwing of bombs, studying the effect.

Anti-American Demonstration.
Mexico City, July 13.—The American ambassador's note of protest to the foreign office against permitting an anti-American demonstration here today had certain indirect results, although the government did not absolutely forbid the holding of what officials style the "popular manifestation of patriotism."

A demonstration took place in the capital this afternoon but not more than 400 persons participated. There were no speeches, and few cries against Americans. The line of march was through the principal streets and the manifestants halted in front of a big Japanese store, crying "Vivas" for Japan. Some silk Japanese flags were carried with the Mexican colors. A detachment of police accompanied the procession and the minister of war, General Blanquet, followed in an automobile.

Ordered Dispersed.
Brigadier General Samuel Garcia Cueller, governor of the federal district, yesterday refused permission for a demonstration Sunday and ordered the police to disperse it if it formed. The students last night applied to the minister of the interior, Dr. Aureliano Urrutia, to tell them that he sympathized with them and would overrule the governor's order on condition that they created no disturbance.

A government official last night asked Ambassador Wilson for a statement regarding the charges that the rebels had received aid from Americans. The ambassador denied the truth of the allegation that an American warship at Guaymas threw the rays of its search light on the city during the recent fighting emboldening the rebels to take better aim.

Knows Nothing of Charge.
Regarding the charge that the United States consul at Matamoros had attempted to induce federal troops to join the rebels who had captured the town, the ambassador said he had no report on that incident, but if the consul had violated the principle of international law, there naturally would be an investigation by the United States and satisfaction accorded Mexico.

The newspapers in their report of the ambassador's statement eliminated the Guaymas matter, but printed the statement regarding the Matamoros affair. Among the papers there seems a growing tendency to avoid agitation, but the Independents today editorially discussed the imminence of war with the United States and appeals to the rebels to unite with the government in the defense of the fatherland.

Old Veteran Tells of Experience That Killed Some and Almost Got Him

"The older I get the more I realize that war is hell," said Mr. J. M. Neal, who has lived in Texas since 1876, and whose home is now R. F. D. No. 2, Dallas, Texas.

"I got a soaking once that lasted for two weeks. It was in the spring of '67 and the wettest time I ever saw. I was with Company F, Sixteenth Missouri Infantry. There was hardly a dry or warm thread on any of us for many days and nights. The wetting killed many of the boys. It gave me rheumatism that has been with me since, until just recently, when I found relief in Vitalitas. Nothing has ever done me so much good as Vitalitas. Besides the rheumatism, I have had a kidney trouble that would lay me entirely up at times. I believe I am now cured of both. Have not felt so strong and vigorous in years. I am telling this so that all my friends may know about Vitalitas and be benefited by it."

Vitalitas is no potent medicine. It is taken out of the earth and every drop of it made by nature. It has no harmful ingredient and is pleasant to take. All disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys and blood are swept away by its use. It is fully guaranteed. Investigate Vitalitas today. ## JOHNS IS STILL HELD IN JAIL

Police Look for Another Man in Alice Crispell Murder Case—He Knows Much.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 13.—Reports that Alice Crispell, 18 years old, whose body was found in Harvey's lake near Wilkesbarre last Monday, visited a dry goods store here July 5, which tended to discredit the theory of the police that the girl met her death July 4, were contradicted today by Mrs. M. H. Holcomb, sister of Miss Crispell. Mrs. Holcomb declared that it was she and not her sister who visited the store.

This and reports that a young man had declared that he knew more of the case than had been published, were the only developments made public today in connection with the investigation of the death of the young woman. Search for the man was without avail up to a late hour tonight.

The body of Miss Crispell, which was exhumed yesterday, will be subjected to a second post mortem examination tomorrow. Meanwhile, Herbert Johns, the young woman's sweetheart, is being held.

Akron, Ohio, July 13.—Running at a speed which police say exceeded thirty miles an hour, John Evans, driving a motor truck, struck and killed Mrs. Beryl Moore on the street here today. ## DANIELS ANNOUNCES PLANS ON WAY TO INSPECT PACIFIC DEFENSES.

Jap Trouble Not Responsible for Trip. Will Teach Men Three Hours Daily to Fit Them for Jobs.

Chicago, July 13.—Plans for the vocational education of enlisted men in the navy were announced today by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, who stopped here on his way to the Pacific coast, where he will inspect naval stations and fortifications. The secretary said that recent exchanges with Japan had nothing to do with his trip. It is planned to give enlisted men in the navy the benefit of three hours a day for schooling in a course that is along the lines of the curriculum of the naval academy at Annapolis, he said. "The curriculum will be modified and abbreviated from the studies pursued at the academy, but it is the purpose to train the men as to fit them for responsible positions in civil life when their enlistment expires."

Drafting, electrical engineering, naval architecture, civil engineering and allied studies were mentioned as subjects among the trades for which the men might receive entire or partial preparation.

The secretary is due in Seattle July 18.

B. & O. PASSENGER CRASHES INTO INTERURBAN AT CAMBRIDGE, OHIO.

Accident Occurs During Storm—None of Thirty Passengers on Car Have Chance to Escape.

Cambridge, Ohio, July 13.—Four persons were killed, a fifth probably fatally injured and a score of others hurt tonight when Baltimore and Ohio passenger train No. 15 crashed into a Cambridge and Byesville interurban street car at a crossing in East Cambridge. The dead:

Fred R. Rainey, 26, Cambridge, Ohio. Della Fairchild, 22, Cambridge, Ohio. William Carter, Middleton, Ohio. McNeill, Columbus, Ohio.

Fatally injured: Sheldon Spiles, Byesville, Ohio.

The accident occurred during a terrific storm. The street car conductor had stopped his car and gone forward to the crossing to escape. The wreckage of the car and the killed and maimed passengers were scattered along the right of way for 100 yards.

The impact came just as the street car reached the middle of the crossing and none of the thirty on the train had a chance to escape. The wreckage of the car and the killed and maimed passengers were scattered along the right of way for 100 yards.

France Asks U. S. Gunpowder Secrets

Washington, July 13.—War department officials have been placed in an embarrassing position by a request from agents of the French government for the assistance of the department's ordnance bureau, in perfecting the smokeless powder now used by the French army and navy. A series of unexplained disastrous explosions in French magazines aboard ship and ashore caused the request, which is unusual in view of the consistent efforts made by most nations to protect the secret of their powder preparations.

The war department buys all its powder under contract from an American company and this corporation has protested vigorously against the disclosure of its trade secrets to a foreign government.

San Francisco, July 13.—The Western Pacific railroad, the "Gould" outlet to the Pacific coast, is to lose its identity as a managerial unit and pass under the control of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, thus establishing the Missouri Pacific, one management for Gould roads west of the Mississippi river, according to an announcement made here today.

It is announced that E. E. Jeffrey retires to become chairman of the board of directors, and C. H. Schlacks, vice president, who has been in immediate control, resigns from his position and also from the directorate of the Denver and Rio Grande.

R. E. Bush, president of the latter road, is to become president of the Western Pacific and it is reported that he will have charge of all western Gould lines.

Michigan Wrecks Claim One Victim

Jackson, Mich., July 13.—One man was killed and a dozen persons were injured, two perhaps fatally, in two wrecks on the Michigan Central railroad near here today. Engineer J. Martin of Detroit, was buried beneath his engine and crushed to death when a train of empty baggage cars rapping from Chicago to Detroit left the rails. His fireman, Clayton F. Cole, of Jackson, was scalded and may not recover.

A few hours later two passenger trains on the Grand Rapids division collided head-on, on the Grand River bridge, a few miles north of Jackson. Two trainmen were seriously hurt and several passengers were bruised.

The cause of the first accident has not been learned. A misunderstanding of orders is believed to be responsible for the second.

Action of the committee of 1,000 representing the members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and Conductors employed by the eastern railroads, ratifying today in New York the strike vote taken in both orders in the house to hasten action in the house on the bill enlarging the scope of the Erdman act. The Newlands bill which passed the senate is before the house for passage, while Chairman Clayton of the judiciary committee has a bill of his own which he prefers to bring up.

Currency legislation again will be taken up by the house committee on currency and banking tomorrow and there is a slight prospect that the committee may get together and complete consideration of the bill by the end of the week. The Owen committee in the senate has dropped consideration of the currency bill while tariff debate is going on. It will be taken up again within a few weeks. The bill probably will be passed in the house by the time the senate has disposed of the tariff.

Despite efforts to assure legislation at this session, sentiment against enactment of a currency law continues to grow in the senate. Democrats and Republicans alike have been heard to say that the bill will get no further in the senate than committee consideration which will lead to its being taken up on the floor next winter.

Quiz Labor's Politics. Philadelphia, July 13.—Members of the Central Labor union of this city today discussed the resolutions made by Martin M. Mulhall at the lobby investigation in Washington and decided a committee of seven should investigate the relation of labor leaders with politics in this city. Speakers at the meeting substantiated statements of Mulhall that Michael Collins and Harry C. Kurten had worked with him in the interest of the National Manufacturers' Association but it was declared both men virtually had been expelled from the unions with which they had been affiliated.

STRIKE DEPENDS ON CONFERENCE

mit the controversy to arbitration under the federal law governing such matters.

It remained for the employees' general committee to ratify the strike vote, which was done today. According to the leaders the railroad will be given probably until Tuesday to change their attitude, when, if they still refuse, the strike order will be issued calling 80,000 or more men from work with a possibility that this number will be augmented by thousands of engineers and firemen.

Other May Strike, Too.

As to whether the engineers and firemen would join in a sympathetic strike, Mr. Garretson said:

"The engineers and firemen are not bound to go out on strike with us. On the contrary, they are bound to remain at their posts until such time as they think it would be able to reach their destinations by Tuesday, there will be nothing to prevent a strike order being issued should negotiations not be reopened. A commission of a hundred will remain here to direct the strike should one be called."

Guard Your Children Against Bowel Trouble

Many children at an early age become constipated, and frequently serious consequences result. Not being able to realize his own condition, a child's bowels should be constantly watched, and a gentle laxative given when necessary. Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are especially well adapted to women and children. The Sisters of Christian Charity, 531 Charles St., Luzerne, Pa., who attend many cases of sickness say of them:

"Some time ago we began using Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets and find that we like them very much. Their action is excellent and we are grateful for having been made acquainted with them. We have had good results in every case and the Sisters are very much pleased."

The form and flavor of any medicine is very important, no matter who is to take it. The taste and appearance are especially important when children are concerned. All parents know how hard it is to give the average child "medicine," even though the taste is partially disguised. In using Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, however, this difficulty is overcome. The shape of the tablets, their appearance and candy-like taste at once appeal to any child, with the result that they are taken without objection.

The rich chocolate flavor and absence of other taste, make Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets the ideal remedy for children.

BALKAN STATES A MELTING POT

Friday at midnight by a decisive Servian surprise advance.

Under the Servians' dashing assault the Bulgarians crumbled and were chased to position of great strategic importance, dominating a wide section of frontier.

This capture, adds the dispatch, greatly reduces the chances of the Bulgarian counter invasion unless General Dimitroff should deliver a sledge hammer blow with overwhelming numbers.

Roumanians Advancing.

Bucharest, July 13.—Official reports state that the Roumanian troops are advancing toward the quadrilateral comprising Silistria, Ruse, Varna and Schumla, which Roumania has decided to occupy. The Bulgarians are retreating before them.

Servians Occupy Kustendil.

Vienna, July 13.—There are persistent reports that the Servians have occupied the Bulgarian town of Kustendil. It also reported that a force of Roumanians has arrived at Corabia and is preparing to cross the Danube into Bulgaria northwest of Plevna.

Servians Retreating.

Sofia, July 13, 10:50 p. m.—A semi-official statement tonight announces that the Servians retreated all along the front today pursued by Bulgarians who captured important positions in the Egri Palanka district. Eight Servian officers and 830 men were captured.

No Assassination Attempted.

Sofia, July 13.—Reports of a revolution and attempts against the lives of King Ferdinand and Premier Danoff are absolutely unfounded.

Miss Pankhurst Released.

London, July 13.—Sylvia Pankhurst was released from Holloway jail tonight as the result of a hunger strike. Miss Pankhurst was sentenced July 8 to three months' imprisonment for incitement to commit disorder on June 29, when she led a mob to Downing street to attack the official residence of the minister.

Greeks Capture 10,000.

London, July 13.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent with the Greek army says the Greeks to date have captured eighty-two guns and 10,000 prisoners.

A Belgrade dispatch to the Telegraph says the Servian invasion into Bulgaria was confined to the district between the frontier and the port of Kustendil line.

The Daily Mail's correspondent with the Servians sends the following: "There has been no fighting since Wednesday. A photographer who visited the Krivopalanka found evidence of the Bulgarians having crucified, mutilated and burned wounded Servians."

The Constantinople correspondent of the Mail reports long negotiations between Turkey and Roumania and believe an understanding has been reached.

Monitors Blockade Port.

London, July 14.—Four Roumanian monitors are blockading Rusechuk, Sivistov, Nikolov and Lom, Panaka, according to a Odessa dispatch to the Post. A Bulgarian gunboat and torpedo flotilla have sought refuge at Sebastopol from the Roumanian fleet.

Roumanians Take Cities.

Vienna, July 13.—According to the Military Telegraph, Roumanian detachments have occupied Rusechuk, Turukul, Dobritsch and Balchik. They also landed at Rahova the starting point of a good road to Sofia. The apparent intention is to dictate peace from Sofia unless Bulgaria agrees to Roumanian demands.

Huerfano Is Anti-American.

Washington, July 13.—Jose Vasconcelos, who was sent by the Mexican constitutionalists on a secret mission to London, arrived here today en route to Piedras Negras, Mexico, where he will report to Governor Carranza. He issued a statement tonight, declaring that the anticipated anti-American demonstration in Mexico was deliberately planned by Huerfano and his adherents. Advice received by constitutionalist headquarters here tonight state that the priests of Monclova and Camargo, who were captured fighting against the constitutionalists, had been court martialed and shot.

Story of Durango.

San Francisco, July 13.—Details of the occupation of Durango by Mexican rebels are told by refugees who arrived here today on the steamer City of Sydney.

One party of 181 persons among the passengers traveled across the desert on foot and on mules from Durango to the coast, more than 160 miles, fighting off pursuing bandits. When the rebels entered the city, the refugees say they freed 400 prisoners from the jails, robbed the banks of $500,000 in gold and sacked the city. Colonel Hernandez, of the federal army, was executed.

K. W. Stepp, a civil engineer, one of the passengers, was shot through both legs.

Mrs. Thomas Mathews, who arrived with her husband and 12-year-old son, said just as they were leaving their home in Durango, a band of rebels dynamited their house. They fled with only the clothes on their backs.

Other members of the party reported the murder of Oliver Palmer, a telegraph operator, who had refused to open a safe in his office, and of the robbery of Theodore Ham, American consul at Durango.

Americans Victims of "Leans."

Mexico City, July 13.—Rebels are again in possession of the National Railroad from south of Saltillo nearly to San Luis Potosi. The tracks, recently repaired under protection of Colonel Colmas, have been destroyed. Conditions respecting other railroad lines show no improvement.

The federal troops employed against Zapata are vigorous, but the rebels continue fighting. Reports from American plantations and mines indicate the revolutionists are operating freely and in many cases making American plantation and mine owners the victims of forced loans.

A messenger yesterday communicated with Ambassador Wilson from a town south of Torreón, to which he had ridden, declaring the Americans at Torreón were beginning to suffer greatly on account of the siege. The ambassador authorized the messenger to draw upon the fund for relief purposes and carry the money back to Torreón. It is expected that Francisco de la Barra will be granted, a leave of absence from his post as governor of the state of Mexico and will leave immediately for Italy.

The people have almost ceased to discuss the presidential election and the probability is the elections will not be held October 29, the date fixed.

Experts to Decide Big Dock Question

Washington, July 13.—Expert advice from outside the navy department will be invoked by Secretary Daniels in arriving at a decision as to the completion of the big Pearl harbor dry dock by repaired under protection of the civil engineers and department officials on the difficulties in the way of carrying out the original plans for the construction of the dock as the result of the upheaval of the bottom. He has concluded that his decision should be delayed until the best expert counsel can be had before proceeding with the work.

BRYAN'S PAY IS TOO LITTLE

Secretary of State Says He Will Continue Lecturing So as to Supplement Salary.

Hendersonville, N. C., July 13.—William J. Bryan, secretary of state, declared here today that his salary as a member of President Wilson's cabinet was not sufficient to meet his expenses. He gave this as an explanation of why he expected to continue his work as a lecturer.

"This is my first chautauqua lecture since becoming a member of the cabinet," said Secretary Bryan. "It may not be out of place to say I find it necessary to lecture in order to supplement the salary which I receive from the government. As I have lectured for sixteen years, this method of adding to my income is the most natural one to which to turn, and I regard it as extremely legitimate."

"I did not think it improper to go from the chautauqua platform into a presidential race and if I had been elected I would have thought it no stepping down to return to the lecture platform. These meetings enable me to keep in touch with the people."

No other reference to politics was made by the secretary.

WARNS PEOPLE IT IS VICIOUS

MR. LEWELLING SHOWS SEVERAL REASONS AGAINST THE RESOLUTION.

CAN PAY EXISTING DEBTS

If Amendment is Adopted All State Now Owes Would Go Into a New Bond Issue.

To the Voters of Texas: I have been asked to state my position on Senate Joint Resolution No. 18, proposing amendments to sections 49 and 52 of article 3 of the state constitution.

I am opposed to this amendment, as I believe its adoption is calculated to work untold harm to the people of this state. The resolution is very cunningly drawn and includes the power to vote an issue bond for many different purposes, so drawn, evidently to catch votes. It is an attempt to impose upon the people of this state the most stupendous bonding proposition that has ever been experienced since the reconstruction days and is a palpable effort on the part of the present administration to save itself from the effects of its extravagance and mismanagement of the penitentiary system. Great stress is being laid by Governor Colquitt upon the necessity for a greater university, but he has said practically nothing about the real purpose of the amendment, which is to pay the debts accumulated as the result of his penitentiary policy.

It should be borne in mind that the legislature appropriated during the regular session over half a million dollars to help the governor out of the bad financial situation his administration had gotten itself into in its management of penitentiary affairs; yet so deplorable are conditions in this department of our state government that this amendment is put forward in order that the extraordinary deficit in our penitentiary system may be paid without general appropriations so matter what sort of a future debt it saddles on the state.

It cannot be that the governor is greatly concerned over the warehousing provision in the amendment, or the provision permitting a majority instead of two-thirds of the voters of a district to vote road bonds, because if such had been the case he would never have refused to issue a proclamation on resolution number four, providing for these two propositions, basing his act upon a bare technicality; neither would he have permitted these matters to have been conglomerated with the penitentiary and educational questions, when they are entirely separated issues.

No Limit on Legislature.

There is a vast distinction between a constitutional amendment permitting the people to vote bonds and one which gives the legislature unlimited control over bond issues. If this amendment is adopted, the people will thereby have abdicated their sovereign power to control bond issues and will have given it over to the legislature without restraint. The wildest extravagance of any future legislature would find no legal check if this amendment is adopted. By a careful reading of the language of the proposed amendment it will be seen that there is no limit upon the number of buildings, the cost of same or the limit of improvements to be made at the university. The proposed amendment says: "The legislature, however, shall have power to authorize the issuance of bonds to be approved by the governor for the purpose of purchasing additional ground and erect necessary buildings for the University of Texas, including a medical department, an agricultural and mechanical college and all departments and activities of a complete university of the first class. The revenue received from the permanent university fund shall be available for the payment of interest on those bonds and for the creation of a sinking fund for their redemption at maturity and the legislature shall also have power to issue bonds secured by lien on the permanent university system to be approved by the governor for the purpose of constructing buildings and making permanent improvements."

Governor Colquitt contends that the proposed bond issues would be necessarily limited to the amount which the income of the university lands would pay interest upon and provide a sinking fund for the amendment, however, while it makes this income "available," does not preclude the payment of state bonds and the interest thereon from the general revenues, or in any other manner. It has also been said that the words "necessary buildings" limit the number of bonds which might be used. This argument is hardly worth answering, when it is remembered that the legislature would be the sole judge of when buildings were necessary, and how many.

The governor says that it cannot be assumed that the legislature would do wrong, yet many times has he himself condemned the present one. Surely Mr. Colquitt, knows that legislation is not based upon the theory that man will do right. We would need no law if every citizen of this republic would do the right thing. Checks upon legislators and even governors are frequently helpful.

Governor's Debt on Posterity. Why the governor should seek to avoid the direct consequences of his own official acts and attempt to saddle the debts created under his administration upon some future administration, no citizen can understand, except that it seems to be the boast of governors that they have come through their administrations without raising the tax rate on the people. It should be understood that the legislature voted the protest of a strong minority, voted two million dollars in bonds to be used to meet the extravagant expenditures and debts of a crippled penitentiary system. This bill was obnoxious, and as some of us pointed out on the floor of the house unconstitutional. Now the administration tacitly concedes that it has no constitutional authority to issue this two million dollars of bonds and proposes this amendment to thus validate if possible this contemplated bond issue and then pile on top of it such other bond issues as the majority of this or any future legislature will permit. I ask the people of this state if this is not a startling proposition?

For many years, our penitentiary system has been more than self-supporting, but for the first time probably in the history of our state, under Mr. Colquitt's administration, the current indebtedness of the penitentiary system has reached the appalling sum of $2,000,000. Now it is proposed by unparalleled and unconscionable bond issues to tax the people of this state to meet this indebtedness.

When the people of Texas consider that the rate of interest to be paid upon these bonds is not prescribed, no limitation fixed as to the market value for which they shall be sold; but only the unlimited power granted to the whole state from center to circumference, are we not facing a proposition more serious than these gentlemen advocating these measures seem to realize?

Will Increase Tax Rate. Governor Colquitt lays great stress upon his assertion that the tax rate need not be raised if this amendment is adopted. The fact is, his greatest concern seems to be whether the tax rate will be raised during his administration. If this amendment prevails, and there is issued under it, only $5,000,000 of bonds at 5 per cent (five per cent) interest, the interest alone will exceed the income of the university lands by $55,000 per annum. In addition, the legislature would be compelled to provide for the payment of interest and sinking fund for the penitentiary bonds, as well as the bonds for "other state institutions," and provide for the retirement of the university bonds, and for the payment of the university's annual running expenses, therefore, if Governor Colquitt can figure out how, under such an appalling bond issue, the people could avoid an increase in the tax rate, either now or in the near future, he deserves a place in history by the side of Archimedes, the mathematician. We cannot assume, however, that $5,000,000 would be the limit in university bond issues. On the contrary, once we embark on the course of issuing bonds, no one can predict the end.

Governor Colquitt has asserted several times that the state is without power to provide for buildings and improvements to meet the growing need of this amendment. How he arrives at that conclusion in the face of section 12, article 7, of the constitution, which provides that no taxes shall be levied and no money appropriated out of the general revenue either for the colored normal or for the establishment and erection of buildings for the University of Texas. Money is constitutionally appropriated, however, for the current expenditures for the university, and the annual interest on 2,000,000 acres of landholdings. Section 12, article 7, is as follows: "The land herein set apart to the university fund shall be sold under such regulations, at such times and on such terms as may be provided by law."

The provision gives power if the legislature permits to sell any amount of this 2,000,000 acres to improve the grounds of the university.

Will Pay All Existing Debts.

There is another point to which the attention of the people should be called. Section 49 of article 3 of the present constitution provides: "No debt shall be created by or on behalf of the state except to supply casual deficiencies in current revenue, etc., and such amount shall never exceed $200,000. This amount in the proposed amendment is raised to $500,000. The amendment also provides for payment of 'existing debts.' While this only follows the wording of the present constitution, which evidently referred to debts existing at the time of the adoption of the present constitution, still if the proposed amendment is adopted the courts might construe this to authorize bond issues for all our present indebtedness, including $500,000 annually to supply any casual deficiency. The fact is that it is plainly stated in the case of the $2,000,000 bond issue bill, that the purpose was among other things—"to pay existing debts of the penitentiary system." If the amendment should be construed this way by the courts, it would still further place a grievous bond burden on the people.

Mr. Colquitt contends that this is an administration measure; yet he makes this suggestion in face of the fact that he practically wrote or controlled the making of the last Democratic state platform, and there is nothing whatever in the platform which demands an amendment of the kind. The bill, however, is a platform for the submission of an amendment for a complete divorce of the Agricultural and Mechanical college and the State University, and the levying of a tax for the support of each, was not submitted by the legislature because the two branches could not agree upon its terms.

The contention of Mr. Colquitt that resolution No. 18 is intended to establish an agricultural department at the University is fully answered by the language of the amendment itself. It says: "The legislature, however, shall have power to authorize the issuance of bonds, to be approved by the governor, for the purpose of purchasing additional ground and erecting the necessary buildings for the University of Texas, including a medical department, an Agricultural and Mechanical college and all departments and activities of a complete university of the first class."

Under section 10, article 7 of the present Constitution, the University has authority to establish and maintain a department of agriculture and mechanical "department." There is a vast distinction between the words "department" and "college." The distinction is obvious. If Mr. Colquitt is sincere, and I assume that he is, in saying that the "department" is all that is desired, he has ample authority under section 10, article 7, as the Constitution now stands for that purpose, and he needs no amendment whatever.

Will Close A. and M. College.

If this resolution No. 18 is adopted it will doubtless mark the beginning of the end of the Agricultural and Mechanical college located in Brazos county, so far as its standing and prestige is concerned. The point is, not that the amendment will move Agricultural and Mechanical college, but that it will greatly impair, if not destroy its usefulness at its present location. The governor contends that agriculture should be taught in all the schools and colleges wherever possible. To this I cheerfully agree; but the main question is: Where is the main college for such arts and sciences to be? And under the provisions of this amendment if adopted, the governor would doubtless undertake to es-establish a first class Agricultural and Mechanical college at Austin as a part of the University of Texas, and as such, claim for it a share in the University lands of Texas; and bonds unlimited could be issued to provide for the college at Austin as well as the University proper; and thus the work now being done successfully at Austin at a double expense to the tax-paying citizens. The question would then be presented to the legislature for the college at Austin as well as the college at double expense, or to refuse to provide for it and permit its great influence and prestige to pass away. With Agricultural and Mechanical college at Austin claiming to be a part of the University, and the Agricultural and Mechanical college at Bryan claiming to be a part of the University, the jealousies and differences that would naturally arise between the two over the question of future appropriations would not be reduced to the credit of the state, and as the Agricultural and Mechanical college at Bryan is a part of the University under the Constitution, and as such is entitled to an interest in the University lands, and another college established as a part of the University at Austin would probably also be entitled to its share in the land, the courts alone could decide how the rights of each of these colleges should be settled.

Is our educational system to be thus thrown into endless turmoil, litigation of this 2,000,000 acres? Is this the dream Mr. Colquitt speaks of when he talks of a "Greater University?" Let me warn the people that beneath the gloved hand which he puts forth there are claws of contention and strife ready to pierce the hands of our citizens.

JEW NOT PROMOTED.

Governor Sulzer Will Reprimand Colonel Who Refuses Rights

Albany, N. Y., July 13.—The contention of Samuel Littman of Brooklyn that he was denied promotion in the National guard because he is a Jew is sustained in the official report of an investigation of the case made public today.

The report recommends that Col. Henry C. Barthman, commanding the regiment in which Littman, who was a sergeant, sought election as second lieutenant, be censured and "otherwise dealt with, as his offense in the judgment of the commander-in-chief may warrant."

Governor Sulzer has ordered the recommendations be carried out.

To Beautify Canal.

Washington, July 13.—The report of the fine arts commission, which is charged with the preparation of plans for the beautification of the Panama canal, has been completed and probably will be transmitted to congress through President Wilson about August 1. The plans embody landscape efforts to artistically beautify the approaches to the canal as well as the locks and the country through which the great waterway has been cut.

Ponder of Dallas Pitches Good Ball After First Bad Inning—Crishlow Helps With Bat.

By G. D. Wilson.

If the Dallas Giants thought, when they dropped into Skipperdom they would find a badly battered and much disheartened bunch in the Navigators, and that they would have only to go through the form of taking a game they must have been badly surprised at the peppy, confident aggregation that met them at Katy park yesterday and beat them 2 to 0, by playing high-class baseball. No apologies are due for the giants, for they played good ball, which only makes the Waco victory the greater.

The Tars took the game in the first and swung on to it with all the tenacity of a bulldog through eight innings of a Giant attack. While playing the determined canine part they also kept up daring offensive operations that put the visitors wondering whence the next blow was to come thereby scattering the Cavenderites' operations to such an extent they could not produce a run off the small allowance of safety.

Just with true Dutch frugality, gave up. Just was never better in his life than yesterday. He kept the five hits made off him scattered so that "breakers ahead" was seldom heard and once and a while he did perfect receiving and covered an acre of ground around the plate.

Double Plays Help. Three double plays helped Jost in his victory considerably. Waco's infield was working like a charm all the afternoon. If there is a weak place there it would have been one to find yesterday.

Crishlow got two hits, one of them somewhat scratchy, but very valuable. It was the direct cause of Waco's first score. The other two hits for Waco were made by Renard and Beck. Beck drove one through Tullos, which that wise player gave passage in way so far as getting his body in front of it was concerned. It was one of those hit and arrive affairs with the arrival so nearly simultaneous with the hit that the best method of handling them is to let them go.

Ponder for Dallas pitched good ball. To his poor judgment in playing the ball in the first might be credited a score, but second guesses are always right provided the first was wrong, and Ponder's was wrong. He played the ball to second instead of home and Duguey continued on in being aided by Mosley's error when he dropped the throw. He allowed but four hits, but walked two and hit a man, one walk and the man hit scored. His work after the first inning could not have been improved upon.

Ellis Hardy was present. His presence was not particularly impressive in his resurrected uniform. (Just where it was resurrected is hard to guess. Maybe from the old Toby days.) He did not make himself particularly conspicuous, but much felt. The players knew he was there, it was written all over their faces—and in their actions—and several plays savored strongly of Hardy. His first appearance before the grand stand brought applause and the sun gods were more than pleased to see him.

Anyway it wasn't the old team that was used to mop up the diamonds around the part of the circuit last traversed, or if it was the Texas league class has gone past that of the big leagues, for it would have taken nothing less than a major league club to have done much mopping with the Nav's yesterday.

In the first inning Duguey walked. Yardley was hit by Ponder. Crishlow, in an attempt to sacrifice, popped one up in front of the plate and Ponder threw to second and Mosley dropped the ball on the relay to first, Duguey scoring. All were safe. Yardley going on to third. Wohleben hit a grounder and Yardley was safe at home. This was all the scoring. For the rest of the game it was a pitcher's battle. Jost proving too hard for the giants and he won a deserved shut out.

In the eighth inning Storch for Dallas singled and stole second. Keller-

Galveston 17; San Antonio 6. San Antonio, Tex., July 13.—The Bronchos celebrated their return home today by a complete and devastating defeat at the hands of the Galveston Pirates, 6 to 17. Gene Moore and Freddie Hunsley were yanked in the early innings and Clyde Goodwin fared little better. Hiett did not have to pitch great ball to win. The terrific batting of Hopkins was a feature, as was the error columns of San Antonio.

Austin 3; Fort Worth 1.

Austin, Tex., July 13.—Sensational fielding, coupled with brilliant and thrilling base running won another game today for the Senators from the Fort Worth Panthers, 3 to 1. It was replete with sensations throughout.

Brainard came in for the lion's share of the fancy work. He pulled off an assisted double and stabbed a short fly in right with one hand, tossed the ball to Cook, who threw out a runner that had left first on the impression that the ball would fall safe. Austin scored her runs off two hits. A single in the first by James scored Hohnhorst, who got on on an error and went to second on a passed ball. Two more came in in the seventh on a walk, sacrifice hit, another walk, an out and a timely single by Hill to left. The Panthers got their only score in the seventh on a single, passed ball and an error. Wild base running was disastrous to Fort Worth in several innings.

Baseball Notes

Bill Renard did not play yesterday as if he had just gone back into the game after a spell of sickness. He got a clean hit and also made a neat catch after a run for Duncan's fly in the sixth.

Ross Helms was back with the Skipper yesterday. He failed to measure up to the Louisville manager's idea of American Association class in the five scattered innings he pitched. What method can successfully be used to size up a player in that number of innings which are not even consecutive is a secret belonging to that manager only. However, Waco is glad to get Helms back. He started a game and in two innings let two runs scattered innings he pitched. One of the four hits went to the outfield; the other three innings came at the end of a game that Louisville had already lost by 11 scores.

Umpire Gardner officiated the game yesterday satisfactorily, especially considering that he had been on the train more than twenty-four hours. Gardner is an oddtimer in baseball, having managed teams in the Central and Western Association leagues. He was signed July 11 to take the place of Murphy.

Gardner announces the balls and strikes in very much the tones used by an old style preacher in calling for mourners or announcing a church fair, but his tones in hushing up a kicking player are far from prayerful. He seems to keep himself well in the background, but is usually hanging around somewhere in the vicinity when a close play develops, and leaves the impression on players and spectators that it were foolish to think of it having been other than the way he announces it. "Yes, Brethren, Gardner has evidently seen the game before."

Reilly, the Man Behind the Stick

"Catch-um Reilly," who fondles the end of the bat at home plate for Waco, now has an able assistant in "Reilly Jr.," who made his appearance in Waco several days ago. BLACK LAND FARMS IN THE BISHOP COUNTRY, RICH SOIL, LOW INTEREST, REASONABLE.

TERMS—Bountiful cotton and feed crops are assured in the Bishop country by the splendid rains. Farmers who are cultivating their lands for the second and third years, are counting on a bale to the acre, if present prospects continue. The farmers who are building up this rich section are, with few exceptions, experienced Texas black land farmers, who have come from Central and North Texas to take part in development of this territory and reap good profits from their industry.

Here they have bought land at reasonable prices and others are doing with SIX PER CENT INTEREST on their deferred payments, and the land is turned over to them broken, ready for cultivation. Another feature: on sales made at this time, after the first cash payment is made, no other payment is to be made until November 1, 1915. After that date, payments are made annually and run until November 1, 1921.

All notes are made payable "ON ORDER," so that the purchaser can take them up in whole or in part, as he may be able or inclined.

It is no exaggeration to represent that to say that the amount now being paid as rent by many farmers will practically take care of deferred payments on Bishop land, after the first payment is made.

The city of Bishop, only three years old, has a population of approximately 2,000; it is the center of this rich black land farming section, which has been christened "THE BISHOP COUNTRY," and already has magnificent schools, a complete modern sewerage system, graded streets, cement sidewalks, a splendid hotel and more than 200 miles of good roads leading along all section lines and making the city easily accessible to the thrifty farmers who live along the roads. Bishop has an abundant and pure artesian water supply, good churches and all the advantages, even more, than are possessed by many cities of 10,000 population.

Full and reliable information about both country and city can be had by writing or call in person.

We have just secured, by a lucky turn, 160 acres of proven oil land in the Petrolia oil field. Oil has been found on this land in paying quantities and we are willing to guarantee oil in paying quantities before claiming your money. We will begin to drill the first of the forty (40) wells which we have secured, and put down on this tract, within the next 10 days. We expect to be producing oil in paying quantities within 90 days and if we do not do so, we ask no money. In addition to the 40 wells we have agreed to drill on our 160 acres at Petrolia we are now drilling a deep well for oil on Pumpkin Ridge about 4 miles north of Petrolia, Clay county, Texas, where we own and control 3,811 acres. We will sell you a lot 20x30 feet near our drilling well and will give you an interest in the 2,411 acres, as well as an interest in the 40 wells to be put down on our 160 acres at Petrolia. You may pay 1/4 cash, balance in 30, 60 and 90 days. We will return cash deposit at the end of 90 days if we haven't struck oil in paying quantities on our land. We take all the risk, we feel certain of success. Act quickly. God helps those who help themselves. Applications for no less than three shares taken. Cash payment $7.50. Can use good agents.

GOLDEN RULE OF LIFE BRULAND'S THEME SUNDAY

GIVES INSTANCES WHERE IT MAY BE PLACED IN EVERY DAY USE.

"We recognize the expression, 'I can be just as good out of the church as in it.' This can only be said by one who is self-sufficient and self-righteous," declared Rev. P. O. Bruland of the Lutheran church yesterday. "The world renders valid proof against this statement. Unconsciously every person entertains greater respect for a church member than for one of the above type. The church-goer manifests a definite principle and obedience to God. 'He that is of God heareth God's words,' John 8, 47. And blessed are they that hear the Word of God, and keep it," Luke 11, 28.

Power of God. "Are we, who often gather about the Divine Word of God, conscious of the immense benefit of it for time and eternity? Let the world legislate, and serve inductions, erect just and penitential—all this will not change the human heart for the better. But the tender yet mighty influence of the Word of Life has power to change the heart. It has brought life and immortality to millions down through the cycle of ages, and according to the promise of our Heavenly Father will continue so to do.

"Nevertheless, one reason why the world questions the true greatness of the church is due to the fact that so many church members are defective in their duties toward their neighbor. Love thy neighbor as thyself. Thus we are exhorted. Now should we judge the whole church by the defects of a few? Should we determine the cleanliness of a city by the filthiness of one alley? Oh, no! It was not a boast which Austin said to the heathens: 'Let all the religions of the world produce such princes, such saints, such husbands, wives, parents, children, as the Christian religion produces.' This, then, is the glory of the church and it should not fall in our hands. But, however, be that complaint true or false, it concerns us to take notice of it and to prevent all suspicion of this kind. Therefore, we need to press moralities upon Christians, and that from the true root, the love of God; for that is the great mistake of our age, to set up a sort of false morality and forget the true one that is built on faith in Christ and love to God.

His Power of God. One divine instance is laid down for all to follow. This rule from the lips of our Savior so captivated the Emperor Severus that having heard it from some Christian or Jew, he wrote it in his palace, and caused it to be engraven in golden letters in the courts of justice, and to be proclaimed at the punishment of offenders. And this golden rule of life let us today devoutly consider:

"All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

"A two-fold motive, love to God and love to our neighbor. Self-love is the test, the measure, but is not the reason, ground or principle of our actions. All moral duties must be done as to and in the Lord; out of the love of God, fear of God, and obedience to His blessed majesty. Therefore, it is said: 'Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ,' Eph. 5, 21. So here, Love to man is but a stream which comes from higher fountain, and that is love to God. A Christian loves God first, and, indeed, he loves nothing but God, for he loves God in all His creatures. 'This commandment have from Him, that he who loveth God, loveth his brother also,' 1 John 4, 21.

"Our love to our ordinary brother must be excited and measured by our love to God. Our love to our Christian brother, our fellow saints, must be from love to God. 'Every one that loveth him that begot, loveth him also that is begotten,' 1 John, 2-1. 'Jesus explains Himself more fully concerning this golden rule by saying: 'Give, and it shall be given unto you, good measure, pressed down and shaken together, and running over, shall men give unto your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again,' Luke 6, 38. Hence, be as ready to do good as to receive good; as ready to render service as to be served, as quick and willing to attend service as to ask it. For 'all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them.' Our Lord tells us that 'it is a more blessed thing to give than to receive,' Acts 20, 35. Why a more blessed thing? Because this comes nearest to the nature of God, who gives all of grace, and takes none.

"Now, do we give to others that comfort, that succor, that relief, in all their distress, which we should desire of them, if we were in that same need and distress? Alas! we say pity should be showed to a man by his friend; and shall we be merciless and shut up our bowels of compassion and not show this pity to others? If we pined with hunger, and the children about us cry for bread, and we had none to give them, would we not complain of the hardness of heart of those who have this world's goods, and show no pity? It is well to be considerate, for 'blessed is he that considers the poor; the Lord will consider him in time of trouble,' Ps. 41. 'Blessed are the merciful; for they shall obtain mercy,' Mat. 5, 7. 'Those that only seek to enrich themselves and selace themselves with mirth and pleasure in the good things they have must not expect the like promises. But those who have been

CITY OFFICIALS WILL ASK COUNTY TO SHARE COST OF REHABILITATION

Rebuilding of Suspension Bridge Will Relieve Traffic Congestion—Cost About $18,000—Old Landmark Linked With Waco's History.

Indications are that the mammoth suspension bridge, which spans the Brazos river connecting East and West Waco, long closed to traffic, will soon be rehabilitated. When the county commissioners' court meets this morning it will be waited upon by a committee from the city commission and an expert engineer, with a proposal that the city and county share in the expense of rebuilding the structure. The matter has been discussed frequently in the city commission for the past month, with the result that a committee from the city commission, headed by an expert engineer, with a proposal that the city and county share in the expense of rebuilding the structure. A committee composed of Finance Commissioner T. A. Cauffman, Street Commissioner John Foster and Mayor James H. Mackel was also named to take the matter up with the county officials with the view of interesting them in the proposal to provide an additional connecting link across the river. At the last meeting of the city commission, the bridge concern that plans and sketches were complete, and that their Waco representative, Charles Moore, would be prepared to submit the data Monday morning. The city commission was instructed to accompany Mr. Moore and appear before the county commissioners on that date.

The suspension bridge in Waco is one of the largest of its kind in the country. It was constructed more than forty years ago, and although long since abandoned as a passage way between the two parts of the city by vehicles, its foundation is said to be as strong as ever.

Replaced Ferry Boat. The bridge was one of the first extensive improvements in Waco. Previous to its construction the only means of transportation between the east and west side of the river was a ferry boat, established by Capt. S. P. Ross. The old ferry operated at a point just above where the steel bridge at Washington street now stands. This ferry accommodated the traffic of the city until 1866, when the increased business demanded a more rapid and less expensive means of communication across the river. The demand for more adequate transportation resulted in the formation of a company of private citizens with the purpose of building a bridge across the river. John B. Earle, J. W. Speight, Henry M. Hood, A. J. Buchanan, O. J. Downs and John M. Burney were among the original forces in starting the movement to provide a bridge across the river. Their endeavor resulted in the building of a bridge across the river. John B. Earle, J. W. Speight, Henry M. Hood, A. J. Buchanan, O. J. Downs and John M. Burney were among the original forces in starting the movement to provide a bridge across the river. Their endeavor resulted in the building of a bridge across the river.

A contract was entered into with A. B. Boring, of New York, and he was the originator of the wire cable suspension bridge in America, and with Thomas M. Griffith, engineer, for the construction of the bridge. Work began on the structure in October, 1868. It was completed January 6, 1870, and merciful, bountiful and ready to help others, God delights to show them mercy; and when they are most destitute, they shall find that God takes notice of this, that they were ready to relieve others.

Forgiveness. "In forgiving, the same rule is valid. To forgive is an essential duty. While we live in this world, there will be weakness and offence, and we need mutually to forgive. Scriptures say, 'Forgiving one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have any quarrel against any, even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye,' Col. 3, 13. We are in the flesh, and therefore should not too rigidly exact upon the failings of others, lest they or others deal so with us when our turn comes. We need pardon, for we give offence. 'Take no heed unto all words that are spoken, lest thou hear thy servant curse thee; for oftentimes also thine heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others,' Eccl. 7, 21-22. 'As that emperor wrote this golden rule upon the doors of his palace and courts of justice, so in like measure let it be engraved and written upon your hearts. In all matters of dealing towards others, be exact; for God observes whether you do as you would be done unto. Remember, it is a short rule, yet sufficient. It is a dear rule, therefore it should more prevail with you than that 'All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them.' 'Many talk of being Christians, yes, but get to be good heathens first. Never speak of faith in Christ Jesus and communion with Him, while living directly contrary even to the light of nature. If you call me Lord and Lord, why do you not do the things I say?' Luke 6, 46. Turn to Mat. 5, 43-48 and what do you find? 'Onward, therefore, pilgrim brothers! Onward with the cross our aid! Bear its shame and fight its battle, till we rest beneath its shade! Soon shall come the great avenger; soon the rending of the tomb. Then the scattering of all shadows, and the end of toil and gloom.'" thrown open to the public as a toll bridge, with a great celebration. Objection to the toll charged by pedestrians and vehicles, however, it is said, worked as a barrier against the business interests of the city, with the result that tax payers became insistent that the structure be taken over by the county and city jointly. This was brought about twenty years after the structure was completed; in 1890 the bridge was purchased by the city and county and made a free bridge. For a number of years it remained as a free bridge and the only connecting link between the two sections of the city. Finally, however, it became inadequate to the needs of the city, and the steel bridge at Washington street was built. Later the suspension bridge was abandoned, and now has been closed to vehicles for years. Occasionally a pedestrian can be seen crossing the structure, but as a general passage way the suspension bridge is a thing of the past.

The original cost of the bridge was $130,000. It consists of one span, 475 feet long, suspended by two large towers, each being fixed in two large towers on each embankment of the river. It required 2,700,000 brick in the construction of the bridge. The plan of the city as outlined in sketches prepared by bridge experts is to supplant the wire cables with wire netting of a much greater strength than the original, and to remove the dead weight from the center of the structure. According to the statements made by the bridge men, the structure can be made as substantial and safe as when first erected, and will, if properly put up, be as lasting as the bridge has proven.

Costs About $18,000. The first estimated cost of rehabilitating the bridge submitted to the city commission by Austin Bros. was $18,000. This provided for the wire netting, and for flooring the bridge with white lumber. Since that estimate it has been suggested it would prove a saving to floor the structure with wood blocks on top of the other flooring. The saving resulting from this, it is said, would be in the ability to remove a block when it became worn and replace it with a new one at small cost. This, it was estimated, would add about $4,000 additional to the $18,000. Since this estimate, however, the city commission has been informed by letter that it has been figured a little closer, and while the figures have not been made known to the commissioners, it is believed the cost will not be as great as at first estimated. The city and county still retain their original share of ownership in the bridge, dating from the purchase in 1890.

The city commission believes the reconstruction of the bridge will prove as much of a boon to the country residents living beyond the river as to those living in the city. On this ground the county will be asked to participate in the expense of rehabilitating the structure.

At the meeting this morning, the commission will also be asked to pass upon recommendations submitted by County Road Supervisor R. J. Windrow relative to needed changes in the road management and road construction in the county. Mr. Windrow has also covered in a lengthy article his interpretation of the new McLennan county road law.

Col. Fegley Shows Volunteers' Work In South's Prisons

Lieut. Col. F. C. Fegley, commander of the Southeastern regiment of the Volunteers of America spoke last night at the Austin Avenue Methodist church upon the work of the Volunteers in caring for the prisoners and ex-convicts of Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi. Briefly but convincingly he drove home what is being accomplished by the organization. The Volunteers maintain fourteen homes for released prisoners in the South. He showed that last year 287 men were taken in charge and that out of this number 75 per cent made good. A position is secured for each man, his own lawyer is placed in possession of his past record, and conditions are made so favorable that it is in the power of every man "to come back," if he really desires. By making the employer acquainted with the "ex's" record, the chance of losing his position by some one telling of his former life is obviated. Colonel Fegley related a number of interesting stories showing what the men are actually doing. He interested his congregation from beginning to conclusion. He leaves tonight for New Orleans. Capt. G. L. McCarty of the same regiment, who is assisting him, will accompany him.

7-Horse-Power Motorcycle Tows 2,000-Pound Buick. Promenaders on Austin street yesterday afternoon witnessed a remarkable demonstration of the extraordinary power confined in the seven-horse power motorcycle handled by the Burgess Cycle Co. The speedy little roadster had in tow a big 2,000-pound Buick auto, and the ease with which this temporarily inert mass was handled gave substantial evidence of the enormous power always at the command of the rider. The exhibition excited great interest, the great difference in the size of the two pleasure vehicles also aroused the liveliest sort of comment.—Advertisement.

CAR SERVICE TO EAST WACO WILL BE INAUGURATED

TROLLEYS OF TRACTION COMPANY WILL CROSS BRAZOS FOR FIRST TIME.

The "Work-a-Day-Week" beginning today will go down in the history of East Waco as the most important in the history of this division of the city. For the first time, street cars will cross the Brazos, and the sing of the trolley will now become a familiar sound to East Wacoans.

Street car service to East Waco will be inaugurated Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The first car to go across the new steel bridge, completed last week, will be filled with Southern Traction company officials, members of the commission, and newspaper men. Mayor J. H. Mackey will give the new line official recognition from the city, and response will be made by East Wacoans and members of the traction company's staff.

For the last fifteen years talk in East Waco has been of "street cars." The dream of the people there of speedy and convenient transportation is now to be realized.

Events of the Week. The weekly luncheon of the Rotary club will be made at the New State House today at noon. Talks will be made by H. I. Furman and I. Friedlander.

This morning the commissioners' court will hold an important meeting at the court house. A number of road matters of county-wide weight are to be considered.

In the evening at the city hall the city waterworks commission will hold its regular meeting. Routine business is to be considered.

The city commissioners meet in regular session at the city hall the next morning, Tuesday. At this meeting Mayor Mackey will probably take up the matter of holding a county-wide celebration here when the interurban enters the city next month.

In the evening the weekly meeting of the Young Men's Business League will be held. Further plans for the visit to Mart next Thursday during the Mart annual fair will be considered.

Wednesday the Southern Traction company will inaugurate street car service in East Waco. The Woodmen of the World are scheduled to have a picnic on this day in one of the groves near the city.

Excursion to Mart. More than 150 Waco boosters will go to Mart Thursday morning to attend the Sixth Annual Fair and Stock show. The excursion is in form of a return visit to the one made last week by 176 Martians, inviting Wacoans to attend the celebration. The excursion will be made over the International & Great Northern. Special equipment will be provided. Committees will be on the street this week to sell tickets for this trip and the one to be made July 22 to Mart.

The city commission will meet again Friday. In the afternoon the library board will hold its regular meeting at the public library.

Deaths and Burials

Charles Williams. The funeral of Charles Williams, aged 79 years, died at noon yesterday at his residence, 2118 Franklin street, will be held this morning at 10 o'clock. Burial will be made in First Street cemetery. Mr. Williams moved here two and a half months ago from Oklahoma City. He was a farmer by trade. A son, Herbert Williams, survives.

John Wilson. John Wilson, 51 years of age, for a number of years a resident of Waco, died last night at 10 o'clock at the residence, 519 Garland street. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Ashley Chappell will officiate. Burial will be made at Oakwood cemetery. Mr. Wilson was a member of the Morrow Street Methodist church.

B. M. Eppl. The remains of B. M. Eppl, aged 40 years, who died here Saturday morning, were shipped to Pomeroy, Ohio, yesterday by the M. Compton undertaking company. Eppl was employed by Armour & Co.; he had been in Waco but a short time. His brother, George Eppl, of Shreveport, arrived in the city shortly after his death, completing funeral arrangements. He is survived by a wife at Pomeroy.

Still Holds Remains. The remains of Harry Smith, who was crushed to death last week by a Katy train two miles from the city, are still being held at the Fall undertaking establishment pending funeral arrangements.

Mercury Drops; Park Goers Few Case of Negro Convicted of Murder Puzzles Officers

Man Must Be Transferred to Prison When Sentence Is Passed—Ray Laps Food From Plates—Unable to Care for Self, Says Jailor.

Attendance at the parks yesterday was the lightest of any day last week. But the playgrounds were by no means deserted, hundreds crowding through the gates. The small attendance was due to lowered temperature.

At Cotton Palace and Cameron parks the crowds were the largest. At the former the zoo has proven a great attraction.

Why G. W. Ray, negro, convicted of murder at the April term of the fifty-fourth district court and sentenced to life imprisonment in the state penitentiary, has not been transferred to the prison is a question which the sheriff's office and especially Jailor Ed Costly would like to have answered.

Ray was arrested March 1 on a charge of killing his wife, Della Ray. The crime was committed at Mart. The woman was shot five times.

At the April term of court, a little more than a month later, Ray was tried, and on conviction, sentenced to life imprisonment. Motion for a new trial, made later, was overruled. Subsequently attorneys for him notified the court a complaint charging the negro with insanity would be filed. A date was set for the hearing, but for some reason the complaint was never made. At Ray's trial his attorneys introduced evidence to show the man of unsound mind.

Since Ray was convicted and since the insanity complaint was dropped, the prison commission has sent transfer men to Waco to transfer prisoners in the county jail to the state prison. However, Ray was not included in the list. Instead, he was left of the hands of the county.

Since his incarceration, and especially since his conviction, the man's actions have been such to cause observers to believe that he is of weak mind. At the jail he is said to require more care than any half dozen prisoners. Three separate cells are given over to him in an effort to maintain a semblance of sanitary conditions. It is said the man refused to wear clothes, eats out of a plate about the size of a knife or fork, laps the plate with his tongue. He refuses to care for himself, keeping his cells in a very unsanitary condition. It requires the time of two trustees to keep his cell clean and to give him the attention he needs.

It is stated an effort has been made to have the prison commission transfer the man.

The civil statutes governing prison regulations and discipline provide as follows with reference to the transfer of convicted prisoners from the county where conviction is secured to the state prison at Huntsville: "It shall be the duty of the prison commission to make suitable provision and regulation for the safe and speedy transportation of prisoners from counties where sentenced to the penitentiary at Huntsville. . . . Ray was convicted in April. He has been on the county's hands more than three months since conviction.

Yale's Unbroken String of Wins Is Not a Record

New York, July 13.—While the seven straight victories scored by the Yale varsity nine of this season was an excellent stretch of playing, there remains no question regarding the fact that it was not an intercollegiate baseball record. Parker Davis, the Princeton athletic statistician, has shown that the Tiger team of 1897 scored seventeen consecutive victories. Now comes William F. Garcelson, graduate treasurer of the Harvard Athletic association, who goes Mr. Davis one better. Mr. Garcelson has prepared a record of the Harvard varsity nine of 1904, which shows that the Crimson team won twenty-six out of twenty-seven games played that season, ending with a straight run of nineteen games.
